Open Mike Eagle

Yo Gather round
We're the new fools in town
And the sounds laid down by the underground
We'll drink up all the whiskey that you got on your shelf
So just let introduce myself
My name is Still Rift
Pronounced with the napalm
Keep calm and carry on Right arm a megatron
Blueprint of Babylon
Silent tetra-graviton, the false alarm
Chicken little wolf ticket bought the farm
Foxes in the hen house
Cock fight, get the money like curls
A betting man wins but lose the girls
Midnight in a perfect world
Building steam with grains of salt
Shadow of the avalanche
Shift the plate, dodge the fault
Split hair to Albuquerque
Call Saul for the rabbit stew
Slipping Jimmy caught the fall
That's the jeans [?]

Now gather round
We're the new fools in town
And my sounds laid down by the underground
We'll drink up all the whiskey that you got on your shelf
So just let introduce myself
My name is Open Michael
And it's prounced like a fire from a broken rifle
Leaning like a turning motorcycle
Oily gleaming like a golden idol
Book me, the king of the ring, and let me hold the title
I'm only messing with people who know the meaning of things
The service merchandise, break rooms, and media kings
Playground means freedom that's a feeling that stings
I'm in a grid, 30 feet away dreaming of swings and something

Now gather round, gather
We the new fools in town
And my sounds laid down by the underground
We'll drink up all the whiskey that you got on your shelf
So just let introduce myself
My name is David
Pronounced with the video
VHS, Betamax, analog, digital
We the best, braid the raps, let's get physical
Throw back rap tracks, swole fat backpacks, for delivery
Fresher than what, you're giving me
Nostalgia like a motha' fucka, you ever read the Giving Tree?
By Shel Silverstein
I know you're feeling me, hey
I know you're feeling me
I know ya
My name is slowz adleson [?]
I feel like I am better than every David

Excluding Trugoy and Letterman
We the new
