

Sweatpants Spiderman

Open Mike Eagle

Start studying Kendrick, start dressing like Hendrix
Old chapter just ended, I'm looking over my spending
Gotta start doing it different, review what I've written
Start thinking bout moving on, start thinking bout quitting
Tryna change how I'm looking, tryna search for my footing
Maybe go where I couldn't, maybe finally Brooklyn

Court's now in recess, lil slow on my reflex
Dry cereal wheat chex, finally trying that v-neck
Started doing more pushups, back pain when I look up
Taking down what I put up, knee hurt when I stood up
Instagram for my joggers, got a dad bod like my father
Damn I shoulda went up a size and I'm wondering why do I bother

Eat in comfortable places, probably should've got braces
90's alternative, tryna make a comforting playlist
What the fuck is they crisis, anyway that I slice it
Gotta get an apartment, scared to look at them prices
Weird bachelor couches, my belly hanging like Ralphus
Re-reading old comic books, Rob Liefeld and them pouches

Man's bout to be forty, lordy
New car cos I'm sporty
Or he can't deal with this memory when he see, what he see
And he don't know but he need that new
If you was him you might need that too
Slow it down so we can read back through Another hymn to give feedback to
