Unfiltered

Open Mike Eagle

I want to express myself
I want to be revealing
I'm always holding back to keep from hurting people's feelings
Pulled over by a cop
I was playing nice
I'm trying to say polite things, ask what his day was like
Wanted to cuss him out
Him and my coworkers
Sometimes I speak my mind, I'd like to go further
And say shit when I feel it
And cuss at little children
I'm tired of holding back, I'm going unfiltered

You doin' alright over there?
I'm great!

Listen here, you racist pig
Explain to me just what I did
I was only doin' 40 in a 45
Oh right, I'm black and I'm late this time
But screw my boss, he can kiss my ass
Fuck whoever still [?], finna say
Fuck him, fuck her, and your mom and dad
Fuck them, fuck you, and your dog and cat
Lost my brain, think I'm goin' insane
Off the rails on the crazy train
Takin' action, can't even explain
Why I cursed a kid and got joy from his pain
Yo son, it ain't real, tell me what's your deal
Feel really good to say how you really feel
Get it off my chest, let me express
That means I'm sayin', "Go fuck yourself"

Uh, that got out of hand, I may have overshared
Looks like I may have spilled a drink or two, then broke a chair?
Yeah, we should keep it realer, go where emotion takes us
I need a minute here to recollect my social graces

Think I need to go vomit right now
I'ma drink more, then hold it down
Bartender, bring another round
Before I blow chunks all over the ground
Wait, what's that? You hear that sound?
I'm about to go off right now
Drunk, reckless, and I'm talkin' loud
Do you mind if I just wild out?
