Open Mike Eagle

Yo, this Service Merchandise shit, this is crazy
Yo, y'all be wilin' out, man
Like, y'all come with these whole outer space concepts, man
Sounds, sounds intentional
I'm so curious, like, how do y'all come up with this stuff?
Like, what is the process?

Whiskey

Look at Mikey, he likes it
Another whiskey
Look at Rifty, he fights it
Another whiskey
Any whiskey?
No, I'm picky, but I'm thrifty
So I'm open to a new one if the bartender convince me
Look at Davey, he writes it
Over the beat, child actor designed it
It's not a race, if it were it'd be relay
No sound of space, on Earth it's just a DJ
He say, she say, they say, we say
Check the cover, this ain't Eastbay
Service Merch is sourced and purposed
Newer than the first day of the month is Truer than the arrow North on a compass
I hate assumptions but assume that y'all gon' love this
Turn up the playback 'til neighbors bring the ruckus
Motherfuckas

La la la la

I am gracious, I am given
I play team sports, I play support
I am all sorts, I have no type
I can peace make, I can street fight
I can break hearts, I have false starts
I see all parts, I won't depart
I am spiteful, I'm delightful
I will break you but I won't fight you
I despise you, but I might like you
I'm replaceable, I'm untraceable
I'm invincible, I am legend
I am six of one, I am pixie dust, I am heaven
I have Dante's ring, I have devils
I have cherubims, I'm excitable, I'm depression
I am Legion, but I am weapon

La la la la

One two, one two
I'm out the game, two flagrant fouls
I'm out the world like baby Kal-El
I'm untrained I can play the cowbell
I farm me and I harvest often
I'm hearin' things, or is JARVIS talkin'?
Can you direct me to your largest Walkman?
I'll convert it to the hardest coffin
I'm a genius to some people

I unseam like a dung beetle
My asking price would stun people
The mutual funds, I'm unequal
I'm known to whistle while I'm grave walkin'
I call it down like Graymalkin
When Deebo leaves, I stay talkin'
Had to fuck to Texas, make Austin
Catch me in Inglewood jaywalkin'
