

Sacrifice

Orange 9mm

Give me everything I could use to shelter you
Give me everything I could use I'll tear it down
Give me everything I could use to feel for you
Give me everything I could use I'll tear it down

So worn away I wanna say
Give me everything I could use to shelter you
Now I want to tear it down
We all learn to

There was a time when I'd say I had some trust in you
There was a time when I'd say now that it's torn down
There was a time when I say I had some faith in you
There was a time, but I'd say now that it's torn down

So worn away, I wanna say
There was a time I'd say I had trust in you
But now I'd say you tore it down
We all learn to

You forced me to give up my fire, my life, my hopes, desire
