

Go and get yourself

Orange Blue

Go and get yourself
Some girlfriends
I don't need them when I'm drunk
You told me somethin'
'bout a 'last chance'
I've been swimming in my whiskey
'Cause my ship has sunk

Go and get yourself
Some coffee
I don't drink that in a bar
Don't you worry 'bout your money
If you stop talking yourself
I'll pay the double on your stuff

'Cause Ruby my friend
I see the end
And now I think it's time to understand

Go and get yourself
Some new plans
I just make you feel sad

Go and get yourself
Some new friends
'Cause I'm gonna get along with myself so well
There's no chance to make me happy
I decided I feel blue
Ain't never ever gonna tell the story
And I never ever gonna step in anybody's shoes

'Cause Ruby my friend
I see the end
And now I think it's time to understand

Speaking takes up to much of my time
You better leave me alone
If you wanna drink
The beers are on me tonight
But if you wanna talk you better go now
You better go
Leave me alone
You better go and look for another kind of home
