

Sabbath Hex

Orange Goblin

Come down great deceiver
Every sinner and saint will be rested
You must bow down non believer
And every fiber of your faith will be tested

Do what thou wilt, it shall be the whole of the law

If you understand, raise your right hand
Repeat after me, we are stone free

Slow down red river
The wolves of winter are waiting at your door
You understand you're forgiven
But with forgiveness comes the burden of the law

Do what thou wilt, it shall be the whole of the law

If you understand, raise your right hand
Repeat after me, we are stone free

Curse all the fools that are born without faith

Shield them from the light
Born with traitors eyes
Turned by dark of night
Serpents growing wise

Martyrs lead the way
Death will have its day
Itching, gone insane
You're children of the grave

If you understand, raise your right hand
Repeat after me, we are stone free

If you understand, raise your right hand
Repeat after me, we are stone free

Freedom wears a crown
Dogma wears you down
Scorned with hands of doom
Born again Entombed

If you understand, raise your right hand
Repeat after me, we are stone free

If you understand, raise your right hand
Repeat after me, we are stone free

Stone free
