

The Devil's Whip

Orange Goblin

Lost highway, open road
Dead planet, growing old
Full throttle, hidden hand
Born dead, an evil man
No morals, no soul
No law, no self-control
No time for sympathy
Live hard, dire free

Let's ride, let loose, let's rip
That's right, you can't escape the devil's whip!

Cold thunder, cracking stone
Broken hearts and broken bones
Iron horse and iron will
Whiskey blood on blackened steel
Bruised knuckles, swollen pride
Not one to run and hide
Forever, ride alone
A two-lane graveyard he calls home

Let's ride, let loose, let's rip
That's right, you can't escape the devil's whip!

The devil's whip will eat your heart and take your soul
The devil's whip will take a grip and not let go
It's far too late to run, the devil's at your door
The devil's whip will rule your life forever more!

Let's ride, let loose, let's rip
That's right, you can't escape the devil's whip!

Devils whip, I'll see you around
Devils whip, it's dragging you down
