

Eleven Minutes

Orange & Lemons

Night by night I try to make things happen

Whenever I'm alone
I go to places
Where just like me
Are filled with the lonely

Where smiles are full
But the hearts are empty
Oh, just like me
Only the lonely

Can I be your friend tonight?
Can I fill the spaces between your eyes
And the chairs beside you?
I maybe a stranger
But so are you

So tell me your name
Pretend that I am someone
You can possibly, likely spend
Eleven minutes of masquerading madness

Tell me who you are
Don't get too far
Sometimes birds don't need to fly that great a deal
To really understand just how I feel
Night by night I try to make things happen

Oh, just like you and me
Only the lonely

Can I be your friend tonight?
Can I fill the spaces between your eyes
And the chairs beside you?
I maybe a stranger
But so are you

So tell me your name
Pretend that I am someone
You can possibly, likely spend
Eleven minutes of masquerading madness

Tell me who you are
Don't get too far
Sometimes birds don't need to fly that great a deal
To really understand just how I feel
Night by night I try to make things happen
