

The Story Must Come To A Sudden End

Orange & Lemons

I feel like I'm drugged in a dream
Where everything seems to be unreal
It's all too much for me to see
That your love is waiting there for me

Illusion... discover...
Delusion... uncover...

We have nothing to prove
Nothing to fear and nothing to lose
The way that she moves
Brings out the magic from the blues

Illusion... discover...
Delusion... uncover...

And as I look in your eyes
I see all the passion build inside
Lips like cherry wine
Taste so lovely, taste so fine

Illusion... discover...
Delusion... uncover...

Now the image is clear
I look and see no one's there for me
All by myself
Left to pretend
The story must come to a sudden end

Illusion... discover...
Delusion... uncover...
Illusion... discover...
Delusion... uncover...
Illusion... discover...
Delusion... uncover...
