

Bloodhound

Orbit Culture

The world is now home for the hive; the bloodhound is the one in control

You say, don't care if I self-destruct
You said, don't try to push your luck
Beware, all this rage beneath my skin
Every piece I built, you claim your throne
Everything I did, you claim your own
Now it's time to face what I held in all these years

You know you
Fucked it up in the end now
You fucked it up, your fucking hands off, bloodhound
Fucked it up in the end now
You fucked it up, your fucking hands off, bloodhound
Fucked it up in the end now
You fucked it up, you fucking stole it, bloodhound
Fucked it up in the end now
You fucked it up, you fucking stole it all from me

Anger in my veins
You say, don't give a single fuck
You said, don't try to push your luck
Beware, all this rage beneath my skin
Every piece I built, you drank them all
Everything I did, you stole it all
Now it's time to face what I held up all these fucking years

You know you
Fucked it up in the end now
You fucked it up, your fucking hands off, bloodhound
Fucked it up in the end now
You fucked it up, your fucking hands off, bloodhound
Fucked it up in the end now
You fucked it up, you fucking stole it, bloodhound
Fucked it up in the end now
You fucked it up, you fucking stole it all from me

Fucking stole it all from me
You fucking stole it all from me

In darkness, bloodhound
No longer, bloodhound
Their hunger, unbound
I sever, bloodhound

Burn it, the truth will surface
Drown it, your ship is sinking

The weight, deliver it
It keeps on haunting me
Create resilience
It's what it forced us to
So, speak, now devil
You've done your part in here
Born as fragile
Now the juggernaut

You know you
Fucked it up in the end now
You fucked it up, your fucking hands off, you know you

Fucked it up in the end now
You fucked it up, your fucking hands off, bloodhound
Fucked it up in the end now
You fucked it up, your fucking hands off, bloodhound
Fucked it up in the end now
You fucked it up, you fucking stole it, bloodhound
Fucked it up in the end now
You fucked it up, you fucking stole it all from me

You fucking stole it all from me

In darkness, bloodhound
No longer, bloodhound
Their hunger, unbound
I sever, bloodhound
