The riot starts
The riot starts

I fall, there is no more bottom
No peace to obtain, just blood and the gore
Lost in the part, in sirens' brawl

The flames spread wide, leaving wounds on my skin
I succumb to endless damnation

I'm leaving the pain
Can't say why
Insanity is crawling deep within me

I'm leaving the pain
And I don't know why
Calamity is crawling deep within me

My life, it is all forgotten
Just chaos and pain, just cut off the cord
Left in the dark of hospitals

No place to hide, leaving pills on your bed
I succumb to endless damnation

I'm leaving this pain
I can't say why
But I know you'll wonder

I'm leaving the pain
Can't say why
Insanity is crawling deep within me

I'm leaving the pain
And I don't know why
Calamity is crawling deep within me

Hey, these faces should not be in the plot
They are the ones that keep tying the knot
Open wrists here, I'm dying alone, forever

Hey, I'm forever in here, in this dream
I'm forever locked in, in this cage
I'm forever locked in, in this hell, forever

I'm leaving this pain
I can't say why
But I know you'll wonder

I'm still in this place
And I don't know why
I'm back at the cleansing

In me

I won't come back home
Comeback home
(I'm escaping the fire)

I'm sorry I won't
Come back home
(I'm escaping the fire)
