

The Tales of War

Orbit Culture

Chasing a dark storm
No reason to be here
Escaping the temple of fear
I forfeit, the summoning time
The chasing of healing shrines
Through darkness I was led through the lanes

You've been warned
The tales of a war
Seek it, the famous words of war
The tales of a war

A fade in the light

(I saw the way)
In darkness, obey
I'm reaching for fragments of fractured light
(I saw the way)
In darkness, astray
I'm waiting for lost dreams
Come back to life

Facing the sundown
No reason to be here
Drowning in oceans of fear
You forfeit, the summoning time
The edge of a severed line
In silence I've walked these endless plains

You've been warned
The tales of a war
Seek it, the famous words of war
The tales of a war

A fade in the light

(I saw the way)
In darkness, obey
I'm reaching for fragments of fractured light
(I saw the way)
In darkness, astray
I'm waiting for lost dreams
Come back to life

(I saw the way)
Take on my parade
The lies of a hope is what's killing me
(I saw the way)
Lights now fade away
(And I'm the broken)

(I saw the way)
In time, I'll fade away
I'm reaching for lost times to come to me
(I saw the way)
I am, wide awake
I'm reaching for lost stars that died in me

(I saw the way)
In darkness, obey
I'm reaching for fragments of fractured light
(I saw the way)
In darkness, astray
I'm waiting for lost dreams
Come back to life
