

Into The Sun

Orchid

Journey a thousand years deep in my mind
Transcending space to the dawn of all time
Dark shining backs break across desert sands
Nephilim's children of Eve marching

Into the sun

Pyramids reaching up into the sky
God Marduk Ra lies in wait for the sign
Shadows move over tell coming of one
On knees awaiting our eyes turned up

Into the sun

Father of Adam shall come for his claim
Bringer of life and the giver of pain
Soon is upon us the day we are one
Children of false gods shall drive them back

Into the sun
