

Silent One

Orchid

Searching in darkness through the circles of time
Folding dimensions part his way
Lurking in shadows as he silently waits
To open the door unto his day

He hears the children of the future
Calling Satan's son
Singing songs of his return
Say, Rise Silent One
Rise Silent One

Cosmic destroyer swallowing dreams
Black wings shall shadow out the day
Eyes with no mercy from this blackest abyss
Ravenous beast watches his prey

He hears the children of the future
Calling Satan's son
Singing songs of his return
Say, Rise Silent One
Rise Silent One
Rise Silent One
Rise Silent One

Black drums of relentless stride
Call him from beyond
Voices echo on the sea
Sing songs of devil's dawn
He who's lived ten million lives
Shall shadow out the sun
Slipping past all space and time
Rise, rise Silent One
Rise Silent One
Rise Silent One
Rise Silent One
Rise Silent One...
