

Wizard Of War

Orchid

Breaking through the stratosphere
Into the realm of god
Sound escaping vision
As he's killing nature's law
He was set upon this world
A victim of his pain
Fugitive from space and time
Escaping from the grave

Wizard of war
Burning through the gates of heaven's door
Exile from the centuries
A world which he was born
Wizard of war

Interstellar overlord
Who once was just a man
Transformed by wicked hatred
He's an exile from his land
Eyes ablaze with malice
As he drops in from the sky
Crashing down upon us he
He's a madman born to die

Wizard of war
Burning through the gates of heaven's door
Exile from the centuries
A world which he was born
Wizard of war

There is no mercy in his eyes
He looks at us with black despise
Reflecting all the lives he's lived
He knows his day will come again

Wizard of war
Burning through the gates of heaven's door
Exile from the centuries
Of demons he was born
Wizard of war
Wizard of war
