

Conquest

Orden Ogan

And every day a part of my soul dies
As I leave somebody else to the abyss
And I can't find no more tears within my eyes
As I lead somebody else to their demise

Forgive me
Old friend
What have I done?

Upon this treason
Find another reason
I'm cursed to live another day
I wish you'd said it
I could forget it
I wish there was another way

(Hey, hey)
This is my conquest
(Hey, hey)
Rise and decay
(Hey, hey)
This is my conquest
And I'll die for another day

And every day a part of this world dies
As I leave another place to the abyss
And I can't find no truth within the lies
As I lead the innocent to their demise

I miss you
Old friend
What have I become?
Forgive me
Old friend
What have I done?

Upon this treason
Find another reason
I'm cursed to live another day
I wish you'd said it
I could forget it
I wish there was another way

(Hey, hey)
This is my conquest
(Hey, hey)
Rise and decay
(Hey, hey)
This is my conquest
And I'll die for another day

Upon this treason
Find another reason
I'm cursed to live another day
I wish you'd said it
I could forget it
I wish there was another way

Upon this treason
Find another reason
I'm cursed to live another day
I wish you'd said it
I could forget it
I wish there was another way

(Hey, hey)
This is my conquest
(Hey, hey)
Rise and decay
(Hey, hey)
This is my conquest
And I'll die for another day

(Hey, hey)
This is my conquest
(Hey, hey)
Rise every day
(Hey, hey)
This is my conquest
And I'll fight for another day
