

One Last Chance

Orden Ogan

He just falls straight into the afterlife
They took my hood to make me see him pay for
What they call 'crimes', all made up, filthy lies
Stigmatised now and forevermore
...And forevermore

They push me up the steps to the trap door
A shadow lurks on the water tower
They've got three, but miss that we are four
(In) this final hour, all I've got is

One last chance - Before they will bring back the night
One last chance in the light
They'll bring back the night forevermore

The rope is thick, but the distance's 40 yards
A bullet hurls through shimmering air
I hold my breath, praying that it hits the mark
As the hangman throws the lever

I'm falling ...Just falling

One last chance - Before they will bring back the night
One last chance in the light
They'll bring back the night forevermore
