Burning

Orianthi

You turn it on just like a light switch
Drop your love bomb, get off on the chase
I know exactly what I'm in for
I pick the same devil with a different face

Baby you're not the only one to apologize
It's taken me to the bottom where I've lost my mind
And when you hold me you say that everything is fine
I'm so in love but it's not with you babe

Lay me down in a bed of diamonds
I get drunk off every lie you tell
You leave me burning, you leave me frozen
I guess I just like to drag my heart through hell

Black out the sun with a bottle of regret
There's a pill for every mood you're in
You leave a scar that cuts me deeper
You always gotta have the need to win

Baby you're not the only one to apologize
It's taken me to the bottom where I've lost my mind
And when you hold me you say that everything is fine
I'm so in love but it's not with you babe

Lay me down in a bed of diamonds
I get drunk off every lie you tell
You leave me burning, you leave me frozen
I guess I just like to drag my heart through hell

Lay me down in a bed of diamonds
I get drunk off every lie you tell
You leave me burning, you leave me frozen
I guess I just like to drag my heart through hell
