

Ghost

Orianthi

There's love on my mind but a war in my heart
Every thought of you tears me apart
Trapped in this prison, black and blue
But I just can't unthink of you

All these city lights
Don't shine like they used to
I walk these streets alone
Trying to find the truth

Did you hold me, hold me, hold me
Like you'd never leave me, leave me, leave me
But did you ever love me, love me, love me
But now that it's all over, I just need some closure
Cuz I'm still living with your ghost

We dug a long way, we broke each other's hearts
Now the tears fall like blood from a cut
I wish I could unfeel the touch of you
God, help me, what I'm gonna do

All these lonely nights
So hard to get through
I sleep in this bed alone
All the dreams I laid with you

Did you hold me, hold me, hold me
Like you'd never leave me, leave me, leave me
But did you ever love me, love me, love me
But now that it's all over, I just need some closure
Cuz I'm still living with your ghost

All these lonely nights
So hard to get through
I sleep in this bed alone
All the dreams I laid with you

But did you hold me, hold me, hold me
Like you'd never leave me, leave me, leave me
Did you ever love me, love me, love me
Now that it's all over, I just need some closure
Cuz I'm still living with your ghost
