Red Light

Orianthi

It's just one of those days
Lost my mind, nothing's going my way
I gotta get out
Can't find a way out
You're like my last cigarette
I know I'm gonna live with regret
But I gotta quit you babe
I know I gotta quit you babe

It's all so crazy
Nobody's gonna save me
It's all so crazy

I'm stuck at this red light
The world's crashing down on me
They say I should go right
It's so damn hard to breathe
Why why why I ask myself
Why why why am I going to hell
I'm stuck at this red light
And it's killing me

Got to find an escape
A one-way ticket out of this place
Where no one's around
Can't bring me down
I know that freedom's never free
All I wanna find is some peace
Where the darkness leaves
And stops drowning me

I'm stuck at this red light
The world's crashing down on me
They say I should go right
It's so damn hard to breathe
Why why why I ask myself
Why why why am I going to hell
I'm stuck at this red light
And it's killing me

I'm stuck at this red light
The world's crashing down on me
They say I should go right
It's so damn hard to breathe
Why why why I ask myself
Why why why am I going to hell
I'm stuck at this red light
And it's killing me
