

I don't wanna feel a thing when I'm with you
Dirty little lies I wanna believe are true

Nobody wants to talk too deep
Nobody likes to barely speak
We're dying inside
Pretending we got nothing to lose

Void
Can you feel the void?
Void
Can you feel the void?

You're just a lonely boy who needs a heart to borrow
Hallmark letter texts you send though your soul is hollow

You know it gonna fall apart
It's the end before it starts
You're dying inside
Pretending you got nothing to lose

Void
Can you feel the void?
Void
Can you feel the void?

Void
Can you feel the void?
Void
Can you feel the void?
Void
Can you feel the void?
Void
Can you feel the void?
