Well, I believe these words came from
The Pokémon movie
(Yeah)

Every single morning, I feel the same way
My dreams are always better than my days
Remember what you told me, I gotta stay strong
I don't think you were wrong

And not that you'd care
But I started getting the help that I so badly need
And not that you'd care
But I found some people who really like me
But I hope that you do
'Cause I started bettering me 'cause I wanted to be like you
Ooh, ooh

I started bettering me 'cause I wanted to be like you
I started bettering me 'cause I wanted to be like you
Now you're no better than me and I've got nothing left to prove
I started bettering me 'cause I wanted to be like you

(Yeah)

Hey everyone, Ryland here
I wanted to say thank you so much for listening to our set
And I want to say thank you to the Summit Shack for having us and putting this all together
It's been really great to be a part of Uh, we're gonna play one last song
It's a new song called "Greenbelt Station"
Thank y'all so much, and stick around for the other acts to come later in the stream
Y'all been really sick, big love
