

Change Your Mind

Orleans

When enough's enough, today's the day
Say "goodbye" and wipe the tears away
Take the time to fly or time flies by
Piloted by a lie

But if you should change your mind
If you should change your mind
I shouldn't be hard to find
If you should change your mind

So why try to deny it? I'm aware
The cat is out, the bag's beyond repair

But if you should change your mind
If you should change your mind
I shouldn't be hard to find
If you should change your mind

And who am I to question why
We give or take and offer?
Oftener than not, we disagree
So what can the answer be
Or are there just no answers?
Even though we ask desperately

You and I decided to find our fates
Maybe some other day will change your mind
And if you should change your mind
I shouldn't be hard to find
If you should change your mind
Any time, if you should change your mind
I shouldn't be hard to find
If you should change your mind (Change your mind)
'Cause I'll be waiting all the time
(I shouldn't be hard to find) Not hard to find
If you should change your mind (Change your mind)
