

Commit To Consequence

Orthodox

"I just wasted 45 minutes of my life talking to some dipshit be cause she was hot, y'know?"

"And she's like 'That's heavy metal isn't it? '"

"I'm like 'You wanna know about heavy metal? '"

It's not difficult to be replaced
Sit and watch, panic grows a face (Virtueless)
Past tense spoken in certainty (Silhouette)
Outline what your fabric used to be

Afterthought
Scatter shot
Stuck in peril
Held strict to decisions of a barrel
Taste the steel between your teeth
An answer found in relief

Punishment leaves no room to walk the fence
When what's ahead dwells in suspense
Commit to consequence

Take matters into your own hands
Squeeze tight to let it go
A statement everyone understands
Commit to consequence

(Can you see me?)
(Can you save me?)
(If I leave, will you hate me?)
