Fallen Behind

Orthodox

God has fallen behind
Holy Ghost of oppression
A phantom you will not find...
I hope God's learned his lesson
Push then pull then push you away...
So he gets the attention he craves
God has tied you a noose
And you're expected to wear it with pride
So you search to find an excuse
To follow a leader who's lied...
Just bow your head and pray
Now you see everything through the eyes of a slave
Push then pull then push you away...
To create the illusion you've been saved
God has fallen behind!
Heaven's out of your reach
And you've only yourself to blame
Now that God has forgotten you...
It is death who's learned your name!
Tell me if you feel saved
What did you come to expect?
The grave you dig is the grave you will get
God has fallen behind
