

Feel It Linger

Orthodox

Give up
Sprawl
Another choked to submission
Another praying for the fall

Do you think that we're alone?
The only God you've ever known

Where do you want to start?
Where you were torn apart?
The name that you lost to leave a mark?
Seeking a truth you know you can't trust
Building a tomb out of a pile of dust

Is this how you wanna ease your mind?
Is this what you wanted us to find?

The only God you've ever known
The only seed you've ever sown
Do you think that we're alone?
Do you think that we're alone?

Is this what you wanted us to find?
Trees cut before they've reached their height
Is this how you wanna ease your mind?
Swallowing the same bullet you bite

Give up

The only God you've ever known
A shadow only you can own
Spirits dwelling in the night
Is this how you want to lose the fight, fight, fight?
Surviving out of spite

Is this what you wanted us to find?
Trees cut before they've reached their height
Is this how you wanna ease your mind?
Swallowing the same bullet you bite

Do you really think that we're alone?
Standing in a shadow of our own?
Spirits dwelling in the night
Waiting to hunt us in the light

Head falling for the floor
The shadow isn't cold anymore

The only God you've ever known
Watches you from the corners of your home
