

Let It Take Its Course

Orthodox

Fight back the urge
What it if worth
I'm digging deeper and deeper in this goddamn dirt
Becoming the presence that welcomes the hurt
And the sight you despise now that your vision is blurred
Is it a lie?
What does it mean?
Is it a lie?
Is it a lie?
Push you away so you can see
That you're too fucking close to me
Push you away so you can see
That you're too fucking close to me
Remorse
Let it take its course
Remorse
Let it take its course
When it's all said and done
I pray you're not the one
I pray you're not the one that finds me
