

The Other Side Of The Nail

Orthodox

Fight to tip the other side of the scale
Dirt corrodes, failure leaves a trail
No commandments, no reply
Piercing with the other side of the nail

All that's leeches and all that's left of be
Save me but kill my serenity
And when the bullet misses (the target survives)
Detriment of resistance (the value of life)

Drowned
The static of calamity
Mistaken identity
The steel dividing me in two

Bracing for the floor to lift
Cells scattering like rain to build the myth
Nose deep in the tracks where failure leaves a trail
No repentance, no reply
Piercing through the other side of the nail

When the bullet (the target survives)
Detriment of resistance (the value of life)
Wise words in a lie of omission (the image refines)
You'll hear it but I doubt you'll listen

Save me but kill my serenity
