

My Rainbows

Oscar and the Wolf

I bring dark material
This is how I feel
In this rock star life you know it's how I feel
This shit tastes better than a good fuck
This weed tastes better than a sour love
But I wanna forget you
And I wanna forget you

And I need savage in a good luck
I need savage in a good trust
But I wanna forget you
And I wanna forget you

Lifestyle come and pick your poison
Bring the noise in
Leave your life on
This weed tastes better than a good fuck
And mine tastes better than this love
But I wanna forget you

I just like the thrill of it
I just like the thrill of it

And I'm right over here, and my rainbows disappear
Rainbows disappear
And I cried over here, and my rainbows disappear
Rainbows disappear

Tastes better than, it tastes better than
Tastes better than, it tastes better than (it feels)

And I'd like to give no fucks about love
And I'd like to understand what's really up there
I wanna go there
And I was in a hurry, no need to worry, call you tomorrow
What about pain, what about joy, and what about sorrow?
I think of my mom, I think of my brother, I think I'm a shame
I think of the times that all my friends will still remain
I love you the same
I love you

And I like it when it kicks in like a space jet
Fucking hard and heavy
My heart's chasing like a Ferrari
I'm not grounded, I'm not ordinary
I just like the thrill of it
I just like the thrill of it

And I'm right over here, all my rainbows disappear
Rainbows disappear
And I cried over here, all my rainbows disappear
Rainbows disappear

And I'm right over here, all my rainbows disappear
Rainbows disappear
And I cried over here, all my rainbows disappear
Rainbows disappear

Tastes better than, it tastes better than (it feels)
