Oscar and the Wolf

Sweet drops in the bitter
Drop me at a fancy dinner
Go and invite yourself...

Sweet drops of liquor
Call your wife for dinner
Go and invite yourself
Go and invite yourself
Go and invite yourself
Go and find yourself

Sweet drops in the bitter
Drop me at a fancy dinner
Dreaming uptown Malibu
Like he's never been cruel to you
And you never liked the city here
And you never liked my marinade
Stay around and see all the pretty houses

And I remember you'd drive me down the afternoon
And you couldn't find yourself
Oh, silly holiday

Sweet drops in the bitter
But it doesn't feel the same here
Don't you deny it
I'll never look like him

Drive, drive me by the pretty houses
And say all the dark boys are from the sky
But I drink your love like a Queen
