

Shell

Oscar and the Wolf

I break loose, I'm not ready yet to lose you
I break loose, I'm not ready yet to lose you

Watch me coming out of my shell
I'm a pearl, bruised up but I'm shiny as hell
Like Coco Chanel, shiny as hell
I look at the world as my oyster

Watch me coming out of my shell
I'm a pearl, bruised up but I'm shiny as hell
Like Coco Chanel, shiny as hell
I look at the world as my oyster

I wanna feel the life and live in the moment
You wanna free your mind?
I wanna be someone you like
You want me to be serious
But I don't want to miss you too much

Watch me coming out of my shell
I'm a pearl, bruised up but I'm shiny as hell
Like Coco Chanel, shiny as hell
I look at the world as my oyster

I'm made of a skull and bones
In this lonely world living on my own
And my tears drop all the fun
As I can hear you by my side

But I can focus sharp as a blade
And I got power I'm [?]
But I ain't got no time to waste
No time to waste

So pull it up 25
Come and ask me for love
Feel like I'm coming alive
I'm never gonna adjust
I die slowly
I die slowly

It's time to turn the lights on and let go

Watch me coming out of my shell
I'm a pearl, bruised up but I'm shiny as hell
Like Coco Chanel, shiny as hell
I look at the world as my oyster

Fresh out of the bag
I don't wanna brag
But maybe I'm doing too much
I don't wanna brag but
I don't miss you that much

Fresh out of the bag
I don't wanna brag
But maybe I'm doing too much

I don't wanna brag but
I don't miss you that much

I break loose, I'm not ready yet to lose you
I break loose, I'm not ready yet to lose you
