

When I say I need you, know that's not a joke
Cause the first song we sang, was the first words I spoke
So if I choose to leave, know I'll be back again
Or we'll meet somewhere else
You are my closest friend

And I love you so
But I wanna go

I picked out the red one from the shop on Park Ave
The cashier threw horns and said "rock on little man"
Mom taught me 3 chords and that night we danced
Then you showed me the world, 20 years of romance

And I love you so
But I wanna go

So when the one thing you love has been held to gun point
You just have to face it, you don't have a choice
I tried to outrun them, my plan was just shit
I got 12 steps ahead, then they emptied the clip

Oh they're everywhere
They're everywhere
I seem to be looking
