

nothing to do

Oso Oso

It's same as it was, always has been
But rendered and centered
I noticed it on the inside again
It made no sense to find reason

Entered a light
A temper defined

Nothing to do but hang around
I always knew I'd let you down

(If you wanted to, they said)
(If you wanted to, they said)

I noticed it on the inside again
I noticed it on the inside again
There's something that lures about the deep end
I noticed it on
I noticed it on

Entered a light

Nothing to do but hang around
I always knew I'd let you down
Nothing to do but hang around
Slip through the cracks let myself drown
