

Miles of Rain

Otherwise

Searching
Searching through miles of rain
But nothing seems to change
Feelings from facing all of the pain
I try to find light in the gray
Without hope you lose yourself forever
All I know is you can't predict the weather

Don't turn away from me
The storm is calling me
I can tell by the shade of the clouds that I'm alive
My hope will be tonight
The storm is calling me

Don't give up
When you know that you've lost
And heroes are not who they seem
Won't find love under darkness of trees
When all that you see is the green
How will you know
When no one helps each other
Take control it's now before it's never

Don't turn away from me
The storm is calling me
I can tell by the shade of the clouds that I'm alive
My hope will be tonight
The storm is calling me
(I won't feel the sun in my eyes)
(I won't feel the sun in my eyes)

Let the bridges fall
So I'm blind
Join the crossroads in my mind
Without dark, light dies
I make my way between both sides
Breathe each breath 'til I find
All the peace that love can hide
And all the sun that can't shine

Don't turn away from me
The storm is calling me
I can tell by the shade of the clouds that I'm alive
My hope will be tonight
The storm is calling me
