

Need to Escape

Otherwise

I never wanted to see
Everything falling apart
And I never wanted to be
Crawling alone in the dark
And I never wanted to see you breaking
We all fall down!

In this wasted night, she's so cold (tearing at the seams
Staring at starts from her eyes)
She's lost and down
In a shallow life, scars so old (giving up a dream
Living in a faceless disguise)
With no way out of this life
I need to escape

And if you get closer to me
I'll take us back to the start
And maybe I'll finally see
The pieces of your broken heart
I never wanted to be your savior
We all fall down!

In this wasted night, she's so cold (tearing at the seams
Staring at starts from her eyes)
She's lost and down
In a shallow life, scars so old (giving up a dream
Living in a faceless disguise)
With no way out of this life
I need to escape

Dreams like broken glass
Cut the heads of my future's past!
Save me from my mistakes
No turning back and no looking away!

We all fall down (down into a life of truth)
With no way out (we all fall down!)
