

New Way to Hate

Otherwise

Light another fire with your politics and sex
Burn another effigy a photo of your ex
Love all of your enemies and lie to all your friends
For some it's the beginning but for most it's the end

The world keeps preaching, keeps teaching me

A new way to hate
A new way to hurt
A new way to reach down and dig up the dirt
A new way to lose
A new way to fake
So what will you choose
This vicious cycle to break or
A new way to hate
(A new way to hate)

Do your part to pay into this sick society
No namaste just make a way for more anxiety
Start a new religion so you control the crowd
Pick a side it's do or die
The other's going down

The world keeps preaching, keeps teaching me

A new way to hate
A new way to hurt
A new way to reach down and dig up the dirt
A new way to lose
A new way to fake
So what will you choose
This vicious cycle to break or
A new way to hate

I got a new way to hate
I hate you
A new way to hate, down in the dirt
A new way to wake up, live with the hurt

A new way to hate
A new way to hurt
A new way to reach down and dig up the dirt
A new way to lose
A new way to fake
So what will you choose
This vicious cycle to break or
A new way to hate
(A new way to hate)
