

Blood

Our Hollow, Our Home

Times of trouble always bring out the worst in me
But I've always tried to find the right words to say
I guess they don't always meet their mark but I'm trying to rebuild t his house without the missing parts
So I wrote this song just to say

If I could take myself away from the flood
And bring back every person we've ever loved and lost
Then I would give my blood, give you every little thing I've got
To rewrite your history cause I'm with you just don't forget me

Just don't forget me

When it feels like every day's another uphill struggle
Another mountain to climb, a summit out of sight
A clear perception pulled from tired eyes seeing double
We've gotta step back or be the catalyst
Could it be circumstances drain my empathy
I hate what I've become cause I just don't know who I am anymore
So I wrote this song just to say

That I know I should have been there
But I'm here for you now

If I could take myself away from the flood
And bring back every person we've ever loved and lost
Then I would give my blood, give you every little thing I've got
To rewrite your history cause I'm with you just don't forget me

If I could find your colors, please, let them show
Let them bleed on to canvas, cause I can't let you go Just know I give my blood, give you every little thing I've got
To rewrite your history cause I'm with you just don't forget me

When I think back to the start of it all
When I couldn't hold back the waves
(You held me close and you were my shelter)
When the ashes burned through the hole in my heart
You were the shadow they cast behind me
So I wrote this song just to say

If I could take myself away from the flood
And bring back every person we've ever loved and lost
Then I would give my blood, give you every little thing I've got
To rewrite your history cause I'm with you just don't forget me

If I could take myself away from the flood (away from the flood)
And bring back every person we've ever loved and lost (and ever lost)
Then I would give my blood, give you every little thing I've got (thi ng I've got)

To rewrite your history cause I'm with you just don't forget
