

Fractured

Our Mirage

I feel the shadows creep, sleep eludes, I can't leave
Memories repeat are haunting me and I can't breathe
Eyes wide open, trapped in a surreal dream
Every sound, every sight, makes my heart bleed out
Panic's tight grip pulling me into the mist
Echoes in my mind dragging me into the abyss
Fighting through the dawn with no release
Trapped in a battle with no end for me

I am lost inside here
In the labyrinth of my mind
Searching for solace I may never find
Nothing's left inside the ruins
Of the dreams I left behind
Echoes of violence with nowhere to hide

Fractured, shattered into pieces by dark that kept me captured
Drowning in confusion endlessly there is no answer
I'm a disaster
Running from my shadows but they're always running and haunting me much faster

I'm lost in the echoes of the past
Trying to outrun the shadows they cast
Solace slips away and fades into gray

I am lost inside here
In the labyrinth of my mind
Searching for solace I may never find
Nothing's left inside the ruins
Of the dreams I left behind
Echoes of violence with nowhere to hide

Every night I fight, but I lose the war
Scars on my soul, wounds cut to the core yeah
Try to stand tall, but I will fall
Caught in a loop, I'm lost for sure
Fractured

I've been locked up here in this fractured mind
I might look fine but I am broken deep inside
Broken deep inside

I am lost inside here
In the labyrinth of my mind
Searching for solace I may never find
Nothing's left inside the ruins
Of the dreams I left behind
Echoes of violence with nowhere to hide
I feel the shadows creep, sleep eludes, I can't leave
Memories repeat are haunting me and I can't breathe
Eyes wide open, trapped in a surreal dream
Every sound, every sight, makes my heart bleed out (Nowhere to hide)
Panic's tight grip pulling me into the mist
Echoes in my mind dragging me into the abyss
Fighting through the dawn with no release
Trapped in a battle with no end for me (Nowhere to hide)

With nowhere to hide
Nowhere to hide
