

Violent Spin

Our Mirage

We're spiraling in beautiful decay
This fatal gravity won't set me free
We sabotage the light of yesterday
Hooked on this exquisite misery
It's killing me
But I won't leave

Burning fire in our veins
We fuel a dangerous spark
Your bitter kiss, a toxic charm
Has left a permanent mark

In the ruins of our minds, we choke on every lie
Every stolen moment's poison, another reason why
Every touch becomes a sting, every word a brutal blow
Trapped in this venomous embrace, where nothing good can grow

Twisted hearts in a violent spin, violent spin, violent spin
Finding beauty in the ruin within, ruin within

We're spiraling in beautiful decay
This fatal gravity won't set me free
We sabotage the light of yesterday
Hooked on this exquisite misery
It's killing me
But I won't leave

You pull me under with a smile, a promise laced in spite
I breathe you in like cyanide and call it holding tight
Yeah, love was just a loaded gun we passed between our lips
Finger on the trigger until I drown in the blood that you spit

Twisted hearts in a violent spin, violent spin, violent spin
Finding beauty in the ruin within, ruin within

I drown in the blood that you spit

We're spiraling in beautiful decay
This fatal gravity won't set me free
We sabotage the light of yesterday
Hooked on this exquisite misery
It's killing me
But I won't leave

Twisted hearts in a violent spin, violent spin, violent spin
