

All Gone

Ours

I'll put my faith in your arms tonight
Will you be my friend through the darkest of hours
Carry me away from the coldest of times
Bruising in my brain taking over my heart

They're all gone
They're all gone
They're all gone
They're all gone

Only me to blame so you won't see me cry
Nothing left to say, nothing left to divide
As we slip away as we fall apart
Say you'll be my friend in the darkest of times

They're all gone
They're all gone
They're all gone
They're all gone
They're all gone
They're all gone
They're all gone
They're all gone

All the past will be done
And the colors will rise
And the pain will be gone
Our hearts open wide
And our brothers will thrive
When our sisters can fly
Rise up from the dark
Rise up from the dark

Rise from the ground
Rise from the ground
Rise from the ground
Rise from the ground

Rise from the ground
Rise from the ground
Rise from the ground
Rise from the ground
