

Falling towards the earth we see
So much lost and suffering the lights are all fading
Shadows begun covering
Something's taken hold it seems there's no escaping

You bury your soul
Where nobody goes
Away from the world
A beautiful masterpiece
With your final stroke
You covered it all

But it's okay
We all fall down and we lose our way
I will be with you eternally
I'll follow you into your darkest place
Where nobody goes

Isolation brought us peace
Loneliness it turned to grief 'til all of it caved in Hard for me to still believe
There could ever be a plan with so much hating

You carry your bones
To the center of it all
It seems
That nobody saw
But maybe it had to be
That your final show had ended alone

But it's okay
We all fall down and we lose our way
But I will be with you eternally
I'll follow you into your darkest place
Where nobody goes
You're not alone
Nobody goes
You're not alone
You're not alone
No, no, oh

It's okay
We all fall down and we lose our way
But I will be with you eternally
I'll follow you into your darkest place
Where nobody goes
