

Ring The Bell

Ours

If I stay I'll only make
You wait and wait

I didn't wanna say goodbye
I didn't wanna say goodbye

I lay wide awake
I see everything clearer when the daylight comes
Lately I'm feeling I can't believe in myself
I see everything clearer when the daylight comes

Face to face with what's displaced
My home, my home
There's a price we pay for love
But I've been saving up for something good and

I didn't want to say goodbye
I didn't want to say goodbye

I lay wide awake
I see everything clearer when the daylight comes
Lately I'm feeling I can't believe in myself
I see everything clearer when the daylight comes
I see everything clearer
When the day reached her arms out I felt my heart
I learned to start again
I learned how to start again

Passed the point of standing on my own
Then I fell I fell I fell
I opened up my heart to the world
Ring the bell
Ring the bell

I opened up my heart to the world
Ring the bell
Ring the bell
