

Screaming Out

Ours

Darling, it feels like years that we've been down
I thought I heard the sound of violins
Angels all around
Going down

As the sun is setting I ride
In the heart of the desert I found a rose
The most spectacular sight of my life

Get up
So I can hear you calling
Like love is screaming out
Get up
Where I can hear you calling
Like love is screaming out

Torment brushed against me as I ride
I just pretend I am blind
If I stay here I'll
Surely die

In the heart of the desert I'll drown
As the red silk ocean pours in we see
The most revolting of sights
In the light

Get up
So I can hear you calling
Like love is screaming out
Get up
Where I can hear you calling
Like love is screaming out
Like love is screaming out
Like love is screaming out
Like love is screaming out
Like love

Love love love love love
Get up
So I can hear you calling
Like love is screaming out
Get up
So I can hear you calling
Like love is screaming out

Love
Now the birds are screaming out
And the world is freaking out
As they fall on their tomorrow
Like love
Like love is screaming out
In a world so full of doubt
We lose all of our tomorrow
Love
