Sometimes

pressure fried the coldest head bent to the side wishing he was dead and i would still defend i would still defend i give up on it all i give up on the greed i give up on the ones who give up on me held up by the poor somewhere there're unaware but i know we are scared if i was to give in the fight would soon begin so i give up on it all i give up on the greed i'll give up on the ones who'll give up on me sometimes sunshines sunshine sometimes the sun shines sunshine did you give up on it all did you give up on the greed did you give up on the ones who gave up on me Ours
