

No Leaving

Out Of The Grey

I've been leaving in ways I haven't before
Through cracks in my conscience and unguarded doors
I've looked through these windows and opened them all
Danced on the ledges with a blindfold on
I've been leaving

Now the ground that I'm on is familiar enough
Covered with pieces of a misplaced love
In spite of myself I'm gonna turn back to You
Cause there's nowhere left to be leaving to

Where would I go
What would I do
Who would I be apart from You
I should've known what's always been true
There's no leaving You

When I took to the highway, thought I knew what I'd find
With six lanes of freedom and an open mind
But these back road signs are saying "Jesus is the way"
Gonna turn myself in, no more running away

Where would I go
What would I do
Who would I be apart from You
Should've known what's always been true
There's no leaving, no, no leaving you
Should've known what's always been true
There's no leaving You

In a promise, in a prayer
Always here, always there
Constant, complete
All I'll ever need
Never will You leave me
I won't be forsaken
Never will I leave You
These hands are open, take them
