

Out of the Ordinary

Out Of The Grey

There are days of redemption and days of regret
And all of the days in between
And sometimes I wonder at all I forget
As the days go by
Made in the image of more than a man
Wonderfully, fearfully made, I
Eternity living inside of me
And still the days go by
But I try

I'm living this life out of the ordinary
I'm opening wide for the extraordinary

And It's all just a dream that You'll slowly reveal
But You promised You're making me real

And now hope is the difference for all who believe
And the hope gives me strength where I stand
The difference is coming alive in me as all the days go by How the time flies by

I'm living this life out of the ordinary
I'm opening wide for the extraordinary
I'm learning to love out of the ordinary now

And I know it's a dream that You slowly reveal
And I know that You're drawing me near
And isn't it right, and isn't it good
How Your love makes me real

I'm living this life out of the ordinary
I'm opening wide for the extraordinary
I'm learning to love out of the ordinary now

Didn't it all go by so fast?
