

Steady Me

Out Of The Grey

Sometimes this life of mine
Feels like a tight rope
I'm going slow, watching where I walk
And all this tension
It keeps me on my toes
But if I start to fall

You steady me
When I lose my step
And I start to stumble over the edge
Steady me
And once again
It amazes me how gracefully
You steady me

I can keep my balance
If I don't look down
Focus on the road ahead
When I forget
That I'm heaven bound
Your hand reaches out

To steady me
When I lose my step
And I start to stumble over the edge
Steady me
And once again
It amazes me how gracefully
You steady me

I don't need no safety net
I know You will never let me down
