

Time Will Tell

Out Of The Grey

I don't know why
I get so crazy as the day goes on
The minutes slipping by
Feel like wasted time
I get confused, so much to do
Don't know which way to turn
I run so far ahead
That I can't catch my breath
Time to stop and close my eyes

And I give up on myself again
Help will come, but only when
It's in Your time
And I hold on for a better day
How long I'll wait I cannot say
But time will tell
I know time will tell

I never measure up
To my own expectations
If I can't do it all
Must be something wrong
I guess I wrestle with an image
I just can't project
By trying not to fail
I'm getting nowhere fast
Time to stop and close my eyes

And I give up on myself again
Help will come, but only when
It's in Your time
And I hold on for a better day
How long I'll wait I cannot say
But time will tell
I know time will tell
