

Too Much

Outasight

I wanna do something brand new
A little something different
And I wanna try and elevate the mood
Right now this instance
And ain't no party like OU party
Wouldn't wanna miss this
It don't take much to get me started
What y'all about to witness

I'm different and I'm magnetic
Drop all the BS like a bad habit
I do my little two-step drinking man
Got a umbrella in it with my feet in the sand
I'm worldwide, I'm well known
Reaching sunshine, drop a line, say hello (hello)
For all my bosses
A banger from Outasight? Of course it is

Get up, get up, get up, get up, get up, get up
Yeah, get up baby
We came to rock, we came to tear this thing up
We never stop, you know it's never too much
It's never too much

Gimme gimme, gimme some more, yeah
Gimme gimme some more (it's never too much)
Gimme gimme, gimme some more, yeah
Gimme gimme some more (it's never too much)
Gimme gimme, gimme some more, yeah
Gimme gimme some more (it's never too much)
Hey, listen, ain't no party like my kinda party

Don't be alarmed but I'm on fire
In a brand new mood with vintage attire
My picture at the Louvre, off to admire
Just can't lose, you calling me a liar?
Now, wait a second (whatever)
Get the message, no [?]
My style, pure perfection
I only go in one direction (going up)

I'm drifting and I'm I'm magnetic
Drop all the BS like a bad habit
I do my little two-step drinking man
Got a umbrella in it with my feet in the sand
I'm worldwide, I'm well known
Reaching sunshine, drop a line, say hello (hello)
For all my people
A cherry from OU? (It sure is)
